BOY'S BAD ACCIDENT

Walter Lawrence Connor, who lives and works at the Silverton Lumber company camp, was cleaning and polishing his 30-30 rifle Saturday evening, preparatory to going on a hunting trip, his little seven-year-old nephew, Joe Revel, who is with his uncle almost constantly while he is around camp, was standing near watching the cleaning process when the rifle was accidentally discharged, striking the little fellow in the left hand and carrying away the entire palm. The bullet which was of the soft-variety variety entered the thumb, splitting the bone and plowing on through—Silverton Appeal.

MAY ADD NINTH GRADE

Ninth grade work will probably be added to the course of study at the state training school for boys this year. In addition to the school room was provided during the summer. The school work will begin October 1.
A business course will be added at the state industrial school for girls, it is expected. So far the courses have been industrial.
A broom shop has been added to the state school for the blind. This school will reopen September 20.
The school for the deaf will open next Monday.
